RE: MUR 2314

Dear Mr. Steele:

I am in receipt of your letter of January 16, 1987, forwarding yet another complaint by Richard Segerblom, a Las Vegas, Nevada, Democratic Party official.

This complaint is the most recent example of harassment by the Nevada State Democratic Party. The complaint against former Congressman Santini's unsuccessful 1986 campaign for the U.S. Senate objects to the manner in which the Republican National Committee and the National Republican Senatorial Committee raised funds on behalf of Republican Senatorial candidates, and conveyed some of those funds to the Santini for Senate Committee.

To the best of my knowledge, as Treasurer of the Jim Santini for Senate Committee, all contributions forwarded to the Committee by national Republican organizations were entirely legal, and were properly received and properly reported to the Federal Election Commission. I have no reason to believe that the funds received by the Committee were from any source other than the individuals whose names were reported to the FEC as contributors to the Committee. Nor do I have any reason to believe that these contributions were the result of any impermissible "allocation" procedure by any national party organization.

Sincerely,

J. Glen Sanford, Treasurer
Jim Santini for Senate
